

Cameron Black

Director of Treasury

Blue Cross Blue Shield of Arizona

As Director of Treasury for Blue Cross Blue Shield of Arizona (BCBSAZ), Cameron Black is responsible for the company's cash and investment portfolios as well as risk management.

A member of BCBSAZ's staff since November 2006, Cameron is also a member of the company's 401(k) and defined-benefit pension plan committees. Prior to joining BCBSAZ, Cameron held positions as an independent investment advisor and with the Translational Genomics Research (TGEN) Foundation in Phoenix.

Cameron graduated with a bachelor of arts in international relations from Tufts University. He also received an MBA in Finance from the WP Carey School of Business at Arizona State University.

Cameron is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA), Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst (CAIA) and Certified Financial Planner (CFP). He currently serves as President of CFA Society Phoenix and is on the Board of Directors of the Phoenix Symphony Association.